

From the Desk of Principal

Dr. S.G.Chauhan

It gives me immense pride and pleasure to welcome you to G.D.Modi College of Arts, one of the oldest and prestigious institutions affiliated to Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University of Patan for imparting and disseminating constructive ideas, values and quality learning to young promising students of the 21st Century.

G.D.Modi College of Arts, Palanpur has established itself as an institution with an impressive record with regard to academics, sports and co-curricular activities. With an enrolment of 2200 students across 8 teaching departments which impart education in fields of language, literature and Humanities. The highly qualified faculty is very eager to help you achieve and realize your goals for which college is but a stepping stone. At G.D.Modi College of Arts, we keenly wish to provide "the environment" conducive to true over all development of our students.

The library is well equipped to cater to the needs of U.G and P.G students and researchers. Cyber café and the xerox center in the library are the unique features of it. Our library boasts of a large collection of books that cater to diverse streams and varied subjects of study, including a separate section for the students preparing themselves for competitive examinations.

The college gives you a variety of opportunities for your all-round development. N.S.S, N.C.C, sports, gymnasium UDISHA CLUB, CULTURAL ACTIVITIES, UPON AVON CIRCLE, SUNYA BAKSHI SAHITYA VARTUL, etc. are various platforms to show your talent and personality. The National Service Scheme (NSS) has exposed and involved the students to the importance of social service through activities like blood donation drives and helping visually challenged students with their academic life in the college. Every year we celebrate anti-superstitions day to eradicate the curse of superstitions from society. The National Cadet Corps (NCC) equally provides the students an opportunity to re-discover society by encouraging them to give their time for more purposeful pursuits and be prepared to work for the defense of the country should the need arise. You will also get fervor of college life, its zeal and substance in various activities and programmes arranged throughout the term.

All students are welcome to express themselves through creative writing in our college magazine, "Parnasha" as well as through different departmental activities. College has various committee related to extra co-curricular activities like Sapta Dhara, cultural activities, , dramatics and debating etc., college has various Departmental Associations, which organize various academic activities throughout the year. The college also gives you an opportunity to enroll in learning a number of soft skills and personality development courses to improve your job prospects and find moorings in the fast globalizing world.

At G.D.Modi, we keenly aspire to create a culture of self-discipline. Ideals of disciplines and value educations must not cease to be mere platitudes and tall talks. We inspire our students to act and implement...

The Women Development Centre of the college is a center of which we are very proud of. It is involved in counseling and sensitizing students towards their rights, obligations, responsibilities and liberties, which will eventually help them grow into responsible citizens of the future. The college has one of the best hostels with the capacity for around 200 students.

I would like to welcome you once again to be a part of the G.D. MODI COLLEGE OF ARTS, PALANPUR College family. I hope that you will make the best use of all the opportunities that the college offers you, and that your time spent here will be the most memorable years of your life.

Wishing you all the very best!

Welcome to G.D.MODI COLLEGE OF ARTS once again.
